AMERICANS BATTLING IN CHINA.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—The Secretary of the Navy has received the following cablegram from Admiral Kempff, commanding the United States ship Newark, lying at the Taku forts at the mouth of the Pei-ho River, dated Taku, June 5: "Engagement has commenced. Have landed force of fifty seamen more—battalion of marines. (Signed) "KEMPF."

The cipher message is not entirely legible, and it is supposed at the Navy Department the Admiral means that he has landed fifty seamen to reinforce the battalion of marines already ashore.

BRYAN'S STATEMENT READ IN CONGRESS.

Believes Legislation for Trusts Is Constitutional -- Amendment Not Necessary.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Mr. Cummings (New York) read the following letter on the floor of the House to-day: "LINCOLN, Neb., June 2. "My Dear Mr. Cummings: I see that the Republicans are asserting that I think a Constitutional amendment necessary for the annihilation of the trusts. "I have never said or believed that an amendment was necessary. I have urged legislation which I believe to be Constitutional, and have said that I favor a Constitutional amendment if the decisions of the Supreme Court declare such legislation unconstitutional. "The Republican party does not want to destroy the trusts. During this session of Congress the Republicans have unanimously supported a proposition to give the national banks control of the currency, and thus create a paper money trust. "I inclose a copy of my Chicago anti-trust speech, which discusses the question of Constitutional amendment. Yours truly, W. J. BRYAN."

NEAR RIOT IN CONGRESS

Corbin's Promotion the Cause of Bitter Battle.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—There was a riotous scene in the House this afternoon during a clash between Mr. Lenta (Ohio) and Mr. Hull (Iowa), growing out of a bitter attack on Gen. Corbin by the former. The matter culminated when Mr. Lenta intimated that Gen. Corbin appointed the sons of Congressmen in the army to help along his promotion. Mr. Hull frankly admitted that he had a son in the army. He aroused his side to cheers when he proclaimed that he thanked God he had sons who could fight for the country. "I thank God," said he, "that I am not one of those anonymous creatures who are unable to perpetuate their species."

Cheer after cheer greeted this shot and when Mr. Lenta replied that if he had a son he would be able to support himself, the hall of the house was stilled with silence.

The confusion was riotous and order was with great difficulty restored.

N. Y. DEMOCRATS DECLARE FOR GOLD AND SILVER, "AT A PARITY," AND FOR BRYAN

The Committee on Resolutions of the Democratic State Convention reported shortly after 6 o'clock.

The only mention of the money question—the feature of the Chicago platform to which the delegates were pledged—was this: "We favor both gold and silver, each to be maintained at a parity with the other."

Then followed a strong anti-trust plank and denunciation of imperialism. The delegates were pledged to vote and act as a unit for the re-nomination of W. J. Bryan, and for the indefinite support of the platform which may be adopted by the Kansas City convention.

The convention adjourned after a short and adjourned. It was a Hill victory and then again it was not. Hill kept out a 10 to 1 silver plank, but has played the convention to the substantial support of any platform adopted at Kansas City.

DELEGATES TO NATIONAL CONVENTION.

David B. Hill, Edward Murphy, Richard Croker and Augustus Van Wyck were elected delegates-at-large to the Kansas City convention by the State Democratic Convention late this afternoon.

These alternates were named: Frank Campbell for Hill, Seymour Vansantver for Murphy, Col. Jacob Ruppert for Croker and James Shevlin for Van Wyck.

Frederick Cook and Robert C. Tilton were named as presidential electors-at-large.

NEGRO WAS TORTURED.

Fire Could Not Make Askew Confess and Mob Took Him Back to Jail. MOBILE, Ala., June 5.—The negro Askew, who was taken from the Mississippi jail last night, was not lynched. He was taken to the home of his victim, a little girl, near Biloxi, where he was tortured for hours in an effort to make him confess.

It was reported that fire was applied to his body, but without avail, for he continued to assert his innocence, and the mob finally returned him to the jail.

DEMOCRATIC IDOL IS BRYAN

David B. Hill conquered Tammany in the Committee on Resolutions of the State Democratic Convention this afternoon by using the Lee Trust as a club. He compelled the Tammany delegates to join him in his fight against reaffirming the Chicago platform on threat of taking the floor and denouncing Robert Van Wyck, "Brother Gus" and Carroll for their connection with the Lee Trust. Hill was willing to have the delegates instructed for Bryan and offered this as a concession to the silver men. Late this afternoon he announced to his allies that he felt sure of victory. Both sessions of the convention were unexpectedly sensational.

The nominations for delegates-at-large were made at 10:15. David B. Hill, Edward Murphy, Jr., Richard Croker and Augustus Van Wyck. The latter name was greeted with alternate hisses and cheers.

VAN WYCK HISSED.

When Mayor Van Wyck's name was reached in the roll call some of the delegates and many of the spectators in the galleries loudly hissed.

Cries of "Put him out, put him out," were heard on every side. The Tammany men raised a feeble cheer, but their efforts were drowned by the volley of hisses.

Over the Van Wyck brothers, Bob and Gus, there had raged a fierce war all day long. The delegates in private conversation unsparringly condemned both for their connection with the Lee Trust.

Senator Michael J. Coffey, of Kings, was one who spoke out openly. He said: "The delegate from my district will not vote for Augustus Van Wyck. If Brooklyn is to be represented among the delegates-at-large at Kansas City we want that representative to be a real Democrat."

We will vote for Mitchell May, the only Democratic Congressman from Brooklyn who voted with his party on the currency bill. If we can't land him, we are willing to vote for Norman E. Mack.

"But we object to Van Wyck, for we don't know where he stands except on the subject of ice."

Temporary Chairman John F. Norton, of Troy, again referred to the Lee Trust in these significant words: "The trouble in New York is the constant betrayal of the people by their servants."

Senator Hill entered the theatre for the afternoon session at 4 o'clock. He walked down the aisle alone and the band played "Hail Columbia." There was comparatively little applause and he took a seat on the centre aisle, ten rows back, with the Albany delegation.

As several men leaned over to speak to Hill, the galleries thundered "Brooklyn, stick to your ship!" while from various parts of the house were heard shouts of "Who is Hill anyhow? A Democrat?" "No!" Answering cheers for Hill were given and the band then came to the relief by a selection from Wagner, so the human voice was necessarily drowned.

HISSES FOR CARROLL.

John F. Carroll entered at 5:30 o'clock and was cheered. Then he was greeted by such cries as:

"How about the ice man?" "Look at the ice man!" "Three cheers for the ice man!" The band played and drowned the cries.

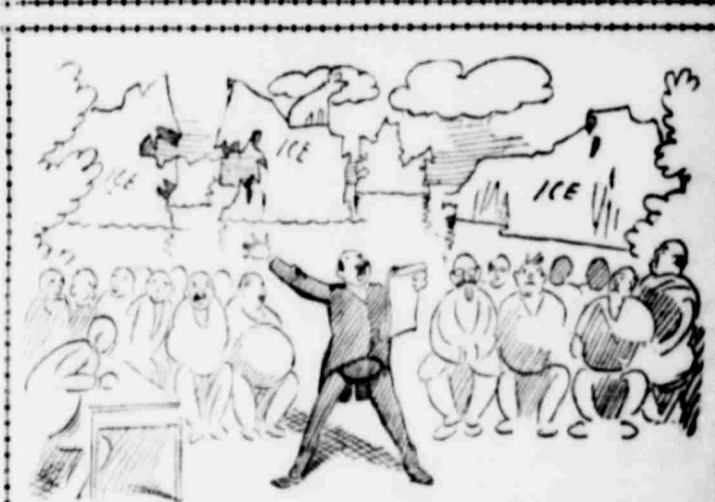

A few moments after 1 o'clock Mr. Norton called the convention to order. The sitting delegates in Albany and Chautauque Counties were voted seated and the contestants given leave to withdraw. Elliot F. Danforth was elected permanent chairman.

Mr. Danforth's speech dealt entirely with National issues. He denounced imperialism and the trusts and referred to McKinley as the "pilot President." Mark Hanna and Cecil Rhodes he characterized as the freighting expansionists of the day. The arraignment of the Philippine war and the Administration's treatment of Porto Rico called forth vigorous applause.

Mr. Danforth concluded as follows: "The Democracy of the State of New York is never unduly elated by victory or discouraged by defeat. It endures with uniform energy, devotion and diligence to exemplify the true principles of good government and to give always to the State a wise, economical and efficient administration of its affairs. The great party of the people will this year arise in its might, united in its judgment, purpose and effort, under the leadership of him who so easily won the fight in 1900. "A victory then would crown our efforts."

Back of Speaker Norton was a drop curtain full of ice.

best chairman and Senator McCarter and J. F. Barnes, of Schuylers, escorted him to the platform.
